He showed the folly of voting for either of the side-show parties and showed that the real fight was between the two old parties; that the People's party was helped by the Republican party, and was but an effort of the enemy to draw away our forces. As a delegate to the Chicago convention he gave an account of his mission, drawing out in strong relief the platform of the party and the character of its nominees. He touched with much emphasis on the force bill, and made plain the errors of the tariff. He paid a glowing tribute to "Our Harry." Geoccarria Countrouse, Va., August 9.—Yesterday was Mathews court-day. Dr. L. 8. Foster, chairman of the Democratic Committee, had given notice that the Democrats would reorganize. A very large crowd was in attendance. Dr. Foster was re-elected as chairman, with a strong committee. After the reorgatization Mr. Marion Jones, of Gloucester, was called upon for a speech, and made a powerful presentation of the issues of the canyass and an earnest and soul-stirring plea for harmony.

have been going on for the big event, and the streets have been crowded with people seeking positions on the numerous stands along the line of march. Fully 20,000 additional knights arrived in the city yesterday and nearly haif that number this morning. It is calculated that not lewer than 22,000 people took part in the parade. The handling of these knights was accomplished with considerable desterity. They were divided into fourteen divisions, to each of which was assigned side-streets for forming upon. The arrangements were so perfect that every division moved into line in excellent order. Along the line the people crowded so as to form an unbroken line three miles in length, and there could not have been less than 200,000 people viewing the magnificent parade.

The Reviewing officers.

The Grand Encampment officers were driven from their headquarters at the Palace Hotel in carriages to the official reviewing-stand, on the corner of Logan and Sixteenth avenues, accompanied by their escort, St. John's Commandery, No. 5, of Philadelphia, and the famous Cowboy Band, of Pueblo, Col. The reviewing-stand was reached about 10:30. The multitude awaiting the arrival of the Grand Encampment officers at the reviewing-stand started an enthusiastic cheering as the cow-boys in their picturesque costumes appeared, which was continued until Grand-Master Gobin took his seat. It was some time before the head of the parade reached the stand, but the Cow-Boy Band entertained the large throng during the wait with excellent music.

THE GREAT PABADE. THE REVIEWING OFFICERS. THE GREAT PARADE.

With waving plumes and flying banners, and accompanied by bands of music which played every block, the great parade passed the official reviewing-stand. It took over three hours for the knights to file by, and although the march was a long one none of them suffered from the heat, as the sun was hidden during the entire parade by clouds. A better day for the purpose could not have been made to order.

THE THRONGS OF SPECTATORS. There were nearly two dozen public stands scattered along the line of march. They held from 100 to 1,000 people each, and besides there were innumerable private stands and every window in the business blocks was crowded with sight-seers. Unlike the business-men of eastern cities those of Denver did not charge for the privilege of looking out of the windows and the visitors took advantage of their kindness. There was a charge, though, for seats in the public stands, and at 10 o'clock ten dollars would not purchase one. They were packed from top to bottom. The beautiful costumes of the ladies added to the gay scene. The side-walks edded to the gay scene. The side-walks were lined ten to twenty feet deep. Boxes and barrels were in demand as standing places, and long-headed grocerymen made many a dollar by retailing these articles. EVERYTHING BRIGHT AND PLEASANT.

Lost night's shower had little effect o Last night's shower had little effect on the decorations and they showed up bright and handsome this morning. The air was eool, and it was one of the pleasantest days imaginable. Every other person wore a badge, and there was hardly a woman to be seen who did not wear some sign de-noting she had a husband or brother be-longing to the knights. SOMBREROS AND SPURS.

It was an enthusiastic gathering, and none were more enthusiastic than those who came from the mountains and stood with sombreros and spurs on among the spectators. They had never seen such a gathering before, and they made the most of their opportunity. It was a good-natured crowd, too. The knights were cheered to the echo as they marched along, looking happy and proud.

VIRGINIA WEATHER AND CROPS Some Crops Improved by Rains, Others Suffering from Drought-State Reports.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] ISpecial telegram to the Dispatch.]

Lyncanuno, V.A., August 9.—The temperature has continued slightly above the normal for the season, though it has not been as warm as during the preceding week. Except in the eastern sections of the State and a few localities, it has been further injurious te growing crops and to pasture lands.

The rainfall has generally been in the nature of local showers and light to heavy thunder-storms. Eastward from Petersburg and Richmond, the reports indicate that nearly all sections have had good rairs, and crops are improving: also northward from Greene and Augusta counties.

Chop Conditions.

Light to heavy rains have proved very beneficial, though rather too late to insure a good corn crop. The drought continues severe in the north central section and is becoming severe in Campbell, Bedford, and adjoining counties, and if rain does not soon occur the corn crop will be cut short, and pastures are already badly burned. WRAK STOCKS BECOME STRONG.

The demand from the shorts made the stocks which were weakest yester-day the strongest to-day, and Burling-ton especially, at the best price, showed a gain of something over 1 per cent. Rock Island and Atchison followed, but the improvement in N-Paul and Omaha was confined to insignificant amounts. After the first hour the Industrials were not recomment in the dealings, though their were not prominent in the dealings, though their early gains were for the most part retained, Sugar, however, being the only one which fluc-tuated over a range of more than a fraction. Among the low-priced shares only Minneapolis and St. Louis showed any special advance.

Mr. Stone has been sick for some time and was laboring under temporary aberration of mind. He was about 26 years of age. He had been in business in Richmond, but about three years since he was forced to give it up on account of ill health and had since been travelling, and last week he was called home by the death of his grandmother. He was when he arrived in good spirits, and so continued until yesterday, when he left his brother apparently in good spirits, but calling him he was found on the bed with pistol in hand and a wound in his mouth."

THE DIRECT-TAX FUND.

Announced Yesterday.

Announced Yesterday.

Governor McKinney did not announce yesterday his appointments of commissioners to distribute the direct-tax fund, but will probably do so to-day or to-morrow. The law providing for the distribution authorizes the appointment of the treasurers of the different counties and cities as commissioners provided they are not in arrears to the Commonwealth.

It is understood that the Governor has had his list of appointments prepared for some time, out a few of those on the list have not as yet made returns for this year to the Auditor. As these are good and faithful officers, they have been written to that if they desire appointment as commissioners they must settle immediately. Their delay in settling is not regarded as indicating negligence. This is the time of year for making returns, and ordinarily it is expected that a few days' grace will be allowed. It was stated on the best authority ty vesterday that every treasurer's name on the list was an assurance of faithful directions to the Commonwealth and prompt ty yesterday that every treasurer's name on the list was an assurance of faithful returns to the Commonwealth and prompt distribution of the fund when he got it in ty yesterday that every treasurer's name on the list was an assurance of faithful returns to the Commonwealth and prompt distribution of the fund when he got it in hand.

There has been no delay in the matter of distributing the fund as far as the Governor and the Capitol officers are concerned, and Mr. Moon and Colonel Smith have pressed their work as rapidly as possible. The Governor could take no practical steps to wards returning the money to those ontitled to it until the lists had been completed. Mr. Moon arrived in the city lasting high, and nothing will be allowed to prevent the money being paid out as soon as possible.
